Canberra Raiders 50-50 Charity Raffle Sales Representatives – GIO Stadium

Are you passionate about supporting good causes and love your footy? This is the job for you!

An opportunity exists to join an innovative fundraising team and work with one of the NRL's Premier teams – the Canberra Raiders.

These positions are on a casual basis, but applicants must be available for a majority of home game days during the 2021 NRL Season.

Approximately 5-6 hours per shift (home game day).

Sales skills are essential, and sales targets will need to be achieved. The sales team will sell 50-50 Charity Raffle tickets at the game day in general admission and corporate hospitality / function areas and will engage in a fun, personable way with fans to bring awareness about 50-50 Charity Raffle (and the charity partner).

These roles will also assist with managing teams of volunteer sellers and other operational game day activities.

The ideal applicants will be driven and be passionate about sales, fundraising and genuine about making a difference in their community.
