Key responsibilities:

- Produce match reports, previews, and wraps for all Wheelchair Rugby League matches, and other CRRL competitions when required.
- Produce creative content for the CRRL website (raiders.com.au/crrl/) and social media platforms.
- On CRWRL competition days, conduct player and spectator interviews, and capture match photos (on provided camera).
- Assist with local media press conferences.
- Assist with Wheelchair Rugby League competition set-up and pack-down (i.e. equipment and signage set-up, assisting guests and participants, crowd management, etc.).
- Greet spectators and answers any questions asked.
- Work alongside CRRL club volunteers and staff as directed.

Requirements:

- Available to attend 2022 CRWRL competition days (once a fortnight during both seasons).
- Available to work in Raiders Centre office approx. one day per week as mutually agreed.
- Ability to multi-task and to cope in busy professional environments.
- Ability to read, critique, evaluate and apply research into practice for opportunities within the competition.
- Demonstrate customer service experience and excellent interpersonal and communication skills.
- A 'can-do' attitude with an eagerness to learn is essential.
- Obtain a Working With Vulnerable People/ Children's Check (WWVP/WWC).

Student outcomes:

- Industry exposure and the ability to network with potential future employers, as well as exposure to a professional inclusive sport environment.
- Establish relationships with different stakeholders within the inclusive Wheelchair Rugby League community (incl. Defence services, government relations, charities, sponsors, disability support organisations, etc.).
- Opportunity to integrate university study requirements (obtain credit points through internship unit).
- Uniform provided.
